Rolf Art is pleased to announce the upcoming exhibition titled "Falta compartida" (shared absence), a group show that will be offered as an aesthetic and poetic reflection about memory. Commemorating the 25th anniversary of the AMIA (Asociación Mutual Israelita Argentina) attempt, the exhibition covers historical and social events that different expressions evoke, collected as a representation of an absence, interpellating us beyond the referential, narrative or testimonial, to denote collective and universal emotional experiences: the feeling of loss that is common and echoes in history.

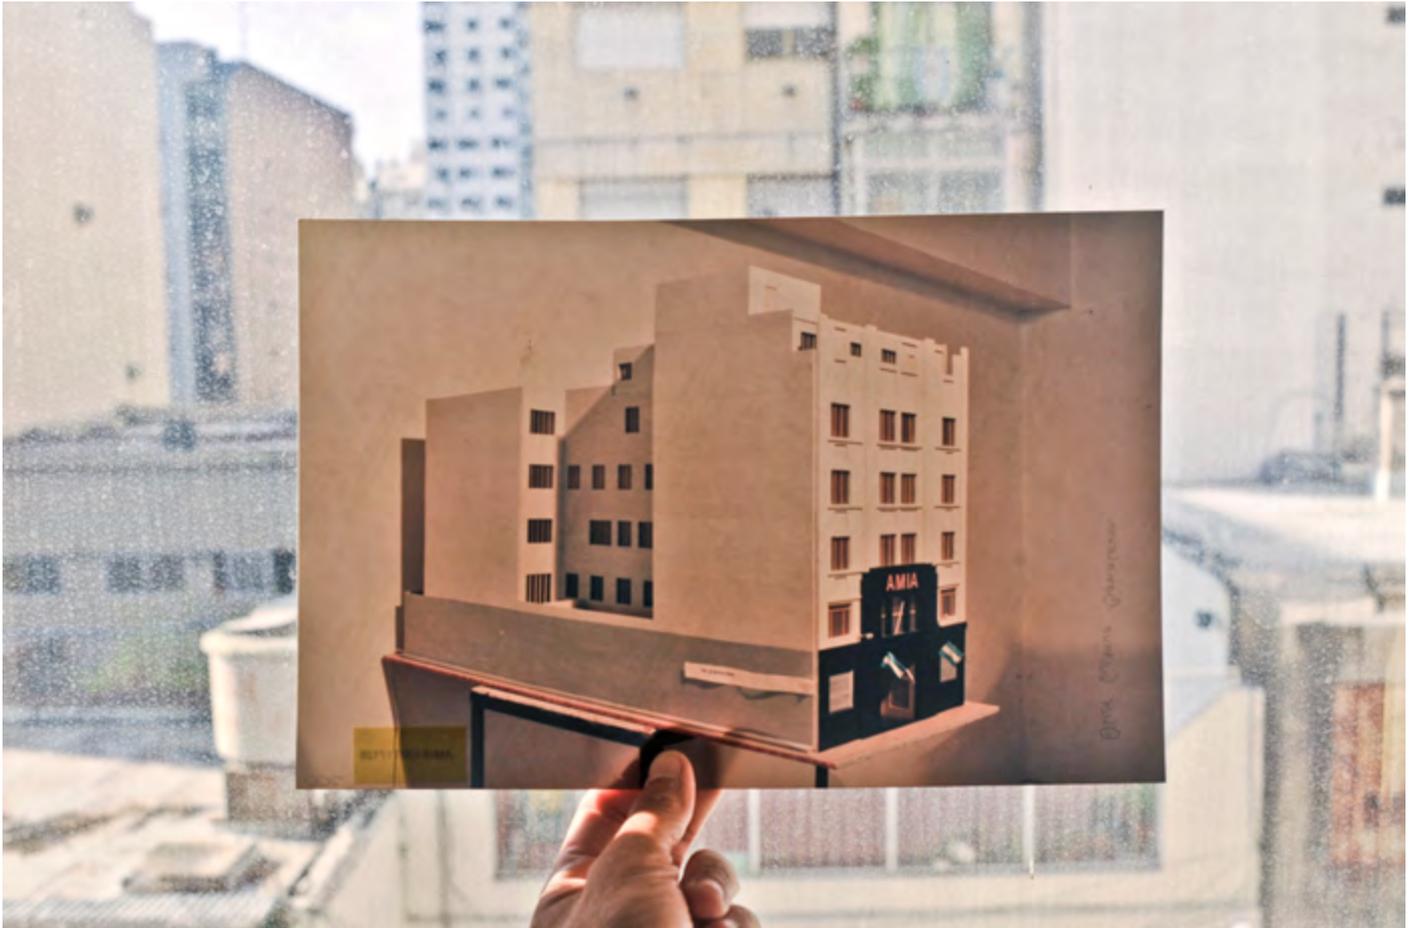

The works gathered in the exhibition break the limits between installation, photography, monument and memorial, discovering the margins of the representation. These expressions work as catalysts for the activation of the memory, and last beyond the anniversary dates and urge us to return again and again to them, proposing other ways of thinking the common drawn, from the index grammar and denotation, with its mixture of text and image, of rhetoric and writing. A kind of mnemonic art that strongly inscribes a dimension of localizable and even corporal memory in the artwork.

The receiver for this show is the individual spectator, but he or she is summoned not only as an individual but also as a member of a community that faces the work of commemoration in a space of thought to re-think the realities that we inhabit.

The artists invited for this exhibition are Graciela Sacco, Marcelo Brodsky, Santiago Porter, RES, Silvia Rivas, Juan Travnik, Cristina Piffer and Celeste Rojas Mugica. Thinking about enriching the proposal with a plurality of Latin American voices that have delved into these artistic tasks, conceptual complexity, poetry and aesthetic depth is that in collaboration with the gallery Mor Charpentier, we invite you to participate in this exhibition to Voluspa Jarpa & Oscar Muñoz.

The opening of the exhibition will take place on Wednesday, July 24, 2019 starting at 7pm, at Esmeralda 1353, Buenos Aires, Argentina. The exhibition, free and free entry, can be visited from Monday to Friday from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. until Wednesday, September 22, 2019.

About ROLF ART

Rolf Art, located in Buenos Aires and founded by Florencia Giordana Braun in 2009, focuses on contemporary Latin American visual arts. The gallery features works exploring photographic media and its boundaries. The selection of artists considers pieces with an inextricable union between critical density and aesthetic values, the relationship between formal strategies and conceptual depth is always in conflict. The curatorial profile of the gallery first and foremost challenges the political context and the representation of what is considered a political image within the boundaries of the photographic medium. It also considers the social and economical context of artistic production and understands it as a determining factor for art's interpretation.

We are committed to a select group of contemporary established Latin American artists, promoting them on a national and international basis. We support their artistic production together with editorial and audiovisual projects.

The gallery's mission is to promote the appreciation of contemporary art and to push the boundaries of visual arts.
